Bloomfield Hills, MI -- July 25, 2011 --The staff at Pet Supplies Plus in Bloomfield Hills wants to find homes for hundreds of homeless cats and kittens and is willing to give up two nights of sleep to do it.

The retailer has organized The Cat's Pajamas 200-cat, 48-hour adoption marathon, taking place from 4 p.m., Friday, August 12 through 4 p.m., Sunday, August 14 at Pet Supplies Plus in Bloomfield Hills. At midnight madness from midnight to 4 a.m. on August 13 and 14, customers who wear their pajamas will get 20 percent off all non-sale items; plus the store will pay sales tax. They will also be treated to free donuts and coffee and of course, lots of purring and snuggling.

"People are sometimes surprised by how intelligent and loving cats really are," said Addy Shattuck, owner of Pet Supplies Plus in Bloomfield Hills. Our events attract a lot of first time cat adopters, but we also see a lot of families that want to bring home a companion for their existing cat. We highly encourage providing pets with same species playmates. It keeps the pet occupied and they are so much fun to watch together!"

To enable ongoing high-volume cat adoptions, Pet Supplies Plus in Bloomfield Hills is building a Kitty City cageless adoption center. Customers will be able to preview this new habitat at the event.

The Cat's Pajamas will take place at Pet Supplies Plus in Bloomfield Hills at 2057 Telegraph, north of Square Lake Rd. Sponsors include The Cat Practice veterinary hospital in Birmingham and NOOTERS Club®, a national designer of apparel and gifts promoting pet spay and neuter and responsible pet guardianship.
