

Caring for Aging Kitties Workshop Series at the Cat Practice in Birmingham

May 16, 2012 - Jun 27, 2012

Pets are living longer, just like people, due to better nutrition and advancements in medical care. But for pet families, this means facing sometimes difficult end-of-life decisions when Fluffy or Fido get old, have a serious illness or just need help getting around. To help pet owners prepare for caring for an aging pet, The Cat Practice will hold a four-part workshop series, Caring for...

View event details...

Detailed listing:

Caring for Aging Kitties Workshop Series at the Cat Practice in Birmingham

Event May 16, 2012 to Jun 27, 2012
Date/Time 6:00 pm until 7:00 pm

Description Pets are living longer, just like people, due to better nutrition and advancements in medical care. But for pet families, this means facing sometimes difficult end-of-life decisions when Fluffy or Fido get old, have a serious illness or just need help getting around. To help pet owners prepare for caring for an aging pet, The Cat Practice will hold a four-part workshop series, Caring for Aging Kitties. The series is part of a new hospice program being offered by The Cat Practice. Topics include: Caring for Geriatric Cats (May 16), Making End- of-Life Decisions (May 30) and Pet Hospice Care (June 13), and Pet Loss and Grieving (June 27).

Cost $10/workshop, $25/series

Location The Cat Practice
875 S. Worth St.
Birmingham, MI
View map »

Additional Info Website <http://www.thecatpracticepc.com>

Original link: <http://www.metroparent.com/Metro-Parent/Calendar/Events-Calendar/index.php?cpevents=17&sievents=160>